His long pulled drive luckily jumped the brook, but he was still stymied by a tree. In attempting to loft over this, Herreshoff made a presend and dropping short. His next left him twelve feet from the cup, but he holed a long one for a 4, which proved good enough to halve the hole, as Hilton had again made a hash of his short game after almost driving the green. Herreshoff topsed his second shot, the size to the flag but he overran by a feet or so, while his opponent laid toget his ball quite enough force, stopping two feet shy. Hittoa holed and settled matters. Immediately the match Silas H. DEFEAT NEW YORK A.C. IN MET-ROPOLITAN CHAMPIONSHIPS.

of Paterson Wins Five Miles, the Important Race of the Day-Sheppard Runs Fast Half and Eller Hurdles Well.

On a soggy track but with balmy weather overhead the annual track and field cham-pionship of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U. took place yesterday at Celtic Park. The keen fight for the point championship of a year ago was sadly missing, for early in the fray it was ap-parent to the most innocent student of the sport that the Irish American A. C. would come out victorious, which they did over the New Yorks by a comfortable margin. Still there were a number of keen competitions and with hardly an exception all were first class. Several titles changed hands and some new Metropolitan records saw the light. saw the light.

Chiefly on account of the fine running lately of Louis Scott of the South Paterson A. C. the five mile run could be easily chalked down as the absorbing event of the day. Bonhag, the American record holder, was an absentee, and the man picked in his stead was John Daly, a former champion, and a stiff customer when in any kind of shape. The report had it, before the runners took their marks that there was considerable betting, the Irish contingent supporting Daly. The field had not gone very far when it was evident that Scott was master of the situation. He Jogged along in third place until a half mile

Hazel Disqualified in Columbia Yacht Club Races.

The Columbia Yacht Club closed its season with races for motor boats yesterday The races were started from a line opposite the clubhouse at the foot of West Eighty sixth street, and the courses were triangular five miles to a lap. The events attracted a fair sized crowd and the Chinese sailors on board the Hai-Chi, which is anchored off Ninetieth street, watched the boats with much interest.

There were nineteen starters in the four classes. The open launches were sent away first. There were three in this class and they went twice around the triangle. Elise, owned by Theophile Kick, led all the way, and although she had to allow time to the Paula, she won easily. The Traveler was scratch boat, but she was beaten boat for boat by Elise.

had copper put on her underbody and this had simply peeled up and acted as a first class brake.

The Hazel, winner of the race against the Helenita, hit something soon after starting and did not plane as she usually does, after which she ran out of gasolene. In the seventy mile race she used twenty gallons, and yesterday she had twenty-four gallons at the start, but it disappeared somewhere and she had to stop for more. The Tequila, being the larger boat, had to allow 29 minutes 50 seconds time, and after getting her fuel Hazel ran over the course, beating the Tequila on corrected time. But Hazel was disqualified because she was towed into the oil tank.

In the race for cabin cruisers there were eight starters, and they went twice around the triangle. Margo, owned by Russel Dart, finished first, but she was beaten by the Respite and Amrita on corrected time. The semi-speed boats were sent three times around the triangle, or fifteen miles in all. H. C. Cushing Jr.'s Adelaide, a very prettily running boat, did well. She kept very close to the Sispud, the larger boat, and won the race on corrected time, with Sispud second and Ink third. The Prodigy went around the course, but did not finish, keeping to the wrong side of the mark boat. The summaries:

Baseball men are anxious to know who are the men behind James McAleer and Robert McRoy in the purchase of a half interest in the boston Red Sox. McAleer was ready to bid for the St. Louis Browns last winter, but when he learned that Robert Lee Hedges wanted $300,000 for the franchise and plant he backed down.
